

I think K-Love should stay on the air. Because it is the only station I listen to. This is the only one in the area that has christian music.